

Expressing the unsaid through Art.

'Untitled' is a unique creation of an artist to exhibit an abstract form of an art. Made up of small square pieces of papers of used 'Outlook' magazine, an artist has put together those pieces in a manner to emerge as pixels. Proving to be a lengthy process, the artist Niyati Kanakia took almost six months to set up this portrait.

Niyati Kanakia, a young, self-taught artist has not studied art formally. One can have a glimpse of this amazing piece of work at the Nehru Center, Worli, Mumbai till the 29th of November from 10:30 am to 7:30 pm at The Nehru Center, Worli Mumbai.
