

Creating an environment of aesthetic appeal at Nehru Center.

Emerging as a new and innovative way of showcasing an art, artist has created statement pieces of furniture according to the artwork. The furniture and the artworks are created according to the space and ambience of the setting that has enhanced the aesthetics of the space.

Niyati Kanakia, a young, self-taught artist has created this painting using an acrylic medium. She has not studied art formally; but she expresses herself and her thoughts through her paintings.

One can glimpse this painting till 29th November from 10:30 am to 7:30pm at The Nehru Center, Worli Mumbai.
